August 2017 [date tbc] | 3:15-4:15 pm CEST (9:15-10:15 am EDT) | Register now: <http://bit.ly/SDCA-3>

Join us for the third session of our 7-episode webinar series "SD Talks Special Series on Climate Action".

Boosting financial flows and greening investments into a low-emission, resilient transition will be key to meeting the aims and ambitions of both the Paris Climate Change Agreement and the Sustainable Development Agenda. A transformational change is needed in our financial systems, banks and investments to enable sustainable business to become the necessary new norm if we want to realize the promise of a clean and sustainable future for all. This webinar will explain the current climate finance scenario and will outline the major opportunities for financial institutions and public and private investors.

The webinar will feature Grant Kirkman and Liza Leclerc, climate finance experts from the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change. At the end of the discussion, participants will have the opportunity to ask their questions directly to the speakers during the live Q&A session.

If you would like to attend this event, please register in advance <http://bit.ly/SDCA-3> . The exact date and time of this webinar will be communicated in due course.

WEBINAR#4 | COP23 in Bonn: Setting the Rules of the Climate Game; Making Cooperation Stick

September 2017 [date and time tbc] | Register now: <http://bit.ly/SDCA-4>

Join us for the fourth session of our 7-episode webinar series "SD Talks Special Series on Climate Action".

Between 6-17 November, thousands of government delegates and leaders from all sectors of society will gather in Bonn (Germany) for the 2017 UN Climate Change Conference. Under the Presidency of Fiji, the UNFCCC secretariat with the support of Germany will host this annual meeting with one clear objective: making progress for a successful, inclusive and ambitious implementation of the Paris Agreement. This includes negotiations on the rule book—or operating manual—for transparent climate action under the Paris Agreement, as well as showcasing cooperative climate action, including on vulnerability and resilience, from around the globe. This webinar will explain the milestones and key challenges that lie ahead of COP 23.

At the end of the discussion, participants will have the opportunity to ask their questions directly to the speakers during the live Q&A session.

If you would like to attend this event, please register in advance <http://bit.ly/SDCA-4> . The exact date and time of this webinar will be communicated in due course.

WEBINAR#5 | From Companies to Cities: Crucial Climate Role of CEOs and Mayors

October 2017 [date and time tbc] | Register now: <http://bit.ly/SDCA-5>

Join us for the fifth session of our 7-episode webinar series "SD Talks Special Series on Climate Action".

Non-Party Stakeholders are essential in the global effort to realize the goals of the Paris Agreement. The UNFCCC's NAZCA Portal showcases thousands of leading examples of game-changing climate actions from the private sector, cities and sub-national governments. More commitments and urgent actions are needed. Wide-ranging cross-sectoral partnerships will be fundamental for nations to fulfil their objectives. This webinar will explain the great momentum for more ambition and cooperation from all parts of society.

At the end of the discussion, participants will have the opportunity to ask their questions directly to the speakers during the live Q&A session.
